Start Planning Your Entries for the 2021 Yorktown Grange Fair

Yorktown Heights, July 28, 2021 – As summer continues to blaze on, many are starting to look ahead to cooler days and the excitement of the 2021 Yorktown Grange Fair. Preparations are underway at the fairgrounds and it's time to begin planning submissions to be entered into the many contests at the fair. There are a plethora of opportunities for families, individuals, kids, adults...and animals! Nothing compares to the fabulous feeling of pride that comes along with your hard work being admired by thousands at the Yorktown Grange Fair. So pick a contest and get started - there are so many options!

New for the 2021 Grange Fair is the video contest. Awards will be given for the best video from each day of the fair. Budding videographers can visit, enjoy, capture the essence of the fair, edit, submit, and hopefully win a blue ribbon! Bakers can get into the mix by submitting homemade baked goods, jams, pudding, candies, or many other tasty and savory treats. Prizes will also be awarded in decorating, so if your canvas is a cake then get your plans and your icing ready! The flower show has so many options, from bouquets to photos of your home garden, theme displays and everything in between. The fan favorite rabbit show is back with options for the cutest rabbit as well as the cutest rabbit in costume. Other contests include: art, lego show, livestock show, needlework, photography, poultry and waterfowl, produce, and woodwork. Many of the contests have multiple age group divisions as well as various sections within the contests. All the details are in the contest booklets on the Grange Fair website (YorktownGrangeFair.org/contests). Check them out and start getting submissions ready to be a part of the fair.

Community is at the heart of the Yorktown Grange Fair. The entries submitted to the various contests from members of the community are what makes Westchester County's only true country fair so special. To walk through and see all the amazing work is a testament to the talent and diversity of local citizens. The 2021 Yorktown Grange Fair will be held on September 10, 11, and 12 at the Yorktown Grange Fairgrounds (99 Moseman Road, Yorktown Heights, NY). Whether you decide to enter your work in a contest or just come and check out all the exhibits from talented neighbors, make sure you get "Out and About at the Fair". See you in September!
