Kid Friendly Activities at the the 2023 Yorktown Grange Fair
Classic Fun at "Your Hometown Fair"

Yorktown Heights, July 19, 2023 — The 2023 Yorktown Grange Fair is full of old-school fun for kids of all ages. Busy families can slow down and enjoy classic Fair activities of rides, games and fair snacks that are up and running all weekend. A quick look at the schedule confirms that the shows and entertainment planned throughout the weekend can not be beat. Your kids will remember your visit to "Your Hometown Fair" for years to come.

Some Fair activities are running all weekend. First things first - check out the midway rides, games, and snacks. Unlimited ride wristbands, priced from $30-$35 allow for maximum enjoyment and minimal arguments. Don't forget to grab funnel cakes, hot dogs, and fries for sustenance (although maybe not right before riding the Tilt-a-Whirl!). Take some time to check out all the Grange Fair contest entries. Stop by the livestock barn to meet the fantastic farm animals on display. Your kids can be inspired by their peer's work in exhibits such as Lego building, gardening, knitting, and more. They may even find a new hobby and enter their work in the show next year!

Saturday brings two opportunities for kids to enjoy Overhill Shenanigans. This group of musical teachers know all the tricks to get the littles up and dancing. View the always popular mile-long Tractor Parade. Enter the Bubble Gum Blowing Contest and the hilarious Topsy Waiter Relay. Big Apple Circus veteran, Adam Auslander will be wandering the grounds on Saturday and Sunday. He's bringing his stilts and skills to the Grange Fair so be sure to search him out.

Sunday kicks off with Annie & the Natural Wonder Band. Their amazing Americana music about the natural world is interactive, fun, and educational. Be sure to stick around for the Watermelon Eating Contest and be sure not to foul out of the Rubber Chicken Throwing Contest.

Westchester County's Only True Country Fair is committed to being accessible to everyone. 10am-11am on Saturday and Sunday will be quiet hour for those who want to appreciate the Fair atmosphere without loud noises. Admission is priced to allow the whole family to visit without financial strain — $10 per carload or $5 for single occupant cars and walk-ins. Kids under 2 are free. There are plenty of entertainment options and activities included with the price of admission.
